Ble Origin in cooperation with Cultural Organization Theater Arcadia presents:

Weekly workshop of Ancient Greek Tragedy

As mythology says life was born on Arcadia Highlands.

Romans called it Arca Deorum (God's Ark). In Renaissance period artists said Et in Arcadia Ego (I was in Arcadia too). The years following, mouth to mouth publicity, turned that phrase into I Tengo Arcana Dei (I keep the secrets of God).

Arcadism inspired many generations till today. We invite you to claim up the Arcadian Highlands. Understand the meaning of Arcadism. Experience the magic because as all miricals can't be explained, has to be lived.

The workshop will take place in the historical geographical territory of Arcadia, Greece. Well known and famous territory of Pan and Nymphs.

Teaching is in English language, based on the Ancient Greek tragedy "Medea" of Euripides.
